

KIC InnoEnergy Teachers Conference 2016

July 5th 2016 in Guimaraes, Portugal

Venue: Hotel de Guimaraes, “San Miguel” room (reception floor)

Rua Eduardo Manuel de Almeida 4810-440 Guimarães

08:30 - 08:45	Welcome and scope of the conference Henrik Svensson, KIC IE and Anna-Karin Högfeltdt, KTH, editor of "Guide to challenge driven education"
08:45 - 09:15	The role of a “Challenge” in a Master programme Which parts of the EIT overarching learning outcomes and the programme ILOs can be addressed by "The Challenge"? Presentation by Enrique Velo, UPC
09:15 - 09:45	What characterizes a good “Challenge”? How open shall the task be and which role should the different stakeholders have? Presentation by Joakim Lilliesköld, KTH
09:45 - 11:45	Workshop 1: How is the situation today in the different KIC IE programmes and which are the opportunities for improvements?
11:45 - 12:45	Findings and sharing the best practises from workshop 1
12:45 - 14:00	Lunch
14:00 - 14:30	Building cases for engineering courses Experiences from collaborations with the International Case Method Institute - which has created many cases for Harvard Business School - on creating cases with an engineering approach integrated Presentation by Krzysztof Pikoń, SUT
14:30 - 15:00	Sharing learning material Presentation of the new KIC IE repository with digital learning resources and content tools that will facilitate the collaboration within Master school Presentation by Per Brahm, Learnify, a KIC partner company
15:00 - 16:30	Workshop 2 How can we take the “challenge based education” to the next level and how can we benefit from developing concepts for challenges and supporting learning material together?
16:30 - 17:30	Findings and proposals for concrete actions
17:30 - 18:00	Summary and closing session

The conference day will continue with: mingle and snacks and at 20:00 a common dinner will be organized at Restaurant Papaboa in Guimaraes

The programme can become subject to changes